By Government of India, Ministry of Labour and Employment order No. 70/2/61-LRIV dated the 5th June, 1961, an industrial dispute between the employers in relation to Cooperative General Insurance Society Limited, Hyderabad and their workmen in respect of the question whether the termination of employment of Sri S. N. Nag was justified and if not, to what relief he was entitled was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal.

Along with the above order, a copy of the statement of demands furnished by the Union was sent to the Tribunal as also to the Employer. Notices were issued by this Tribunal to the parties. The employer filed their written statement to the Union's demands. The matter was then fixed for hearing.

Meanwhile a settlement was arrived at between the parties and they submitted a copy thereof to this Tribunal. AWARD

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment, by their Order No. 1/108/60-LRII, dated the 3rd May, 1961, referred the dispute between the employers in relation to the Laikdih Deep Colliery and their workmen on the point whether the management was justified in curtailing sick khoraki facilities in respect of "Badli workers", and if not, to what relief they were entitled, for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad. By a subsequent Order No. 4/90/61-KRII, dated the 9th June, 1961, the proceedings in relation to the above dispute were transferred to this Tribunal.

Notice were issued to the parties to file their statements. Neither party however did so; but intimated to the Tribunal that the matter had been settled between them and the matter should, therefore, be fixed for hearing. It was accordingly fixed for hearing.

At the hearing, the parties submitted a memorandum of settlement (copy attached herewith) regarding the above dispute. Under the terms of the settlement, the employers agree to pay sick khoraki to badli workers who fall sick during the tenure of their appointment, but the payment is to be confined only to the total duration of their appointment. In my opinion, the settlement is fair and reasonable.

APPEARANCES:

For the employers:

For the workmen:

Dated, 10th October, 1961

AWARD

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment, by Order No. 2/78/61-LRII, dated the 9th June, 1961 have referred the dispute between the employers in relation to Ramnagar Colliery and their workmen on the point whether the dismissal of Messrs. Chotey Ram, Dudhnath Ram, Rami Gope, Trampers and Lakhman Mahato, pick-miner, was justified and if not, to what relief they were entitled, for adjudication to this Tribunal.

It appears that the above four workers were dismissed by the management on the allegation that so far as the first two workmen were concerned, they wilfully disobeyed a lawful order and threatened and tried to assault the traffic-in-charge and later on pushed him and also assaulted him and forced him to enter their names in the Register so that they could go underground. As against the other two workmen, it was alleged that they incited workers to assault the traffic-in-charge and also to cause breach of peace and to use violence. The Management urged that they served the workmen with charge sheets and after holding a proper enquiry were satisfied that the charges were proved and so they dismissed the workmen. These allegations were denied by the workmen.

When the matter came up for hearing before me, the parties stated that they had settled the dispute amongst themselves and produced the terms of settlement. Under the terms of settlement, the Management have agreed to appoint all the four workmen in their former posts with effect from the 2nd October, 1961 in any of their collieries. After going through the record of the case, I think that the compromise is fair and reasonable.

I, therefore, record the compromise and pass an award in terms thereof.

Dated, the 9th October, 1961

AWARD

By Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment Order No. 2/42/61-LRII, dated the 11th April, 1961, the industrial dispute between the employers in relation to Seetalpur Colliery and their workmen on the question whether the dismissal of Sri Jogeshwar, timber mistry, was justified and if not, to what relief he was entitled, was referred for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal at Dhanbad. By a subsequent Order No. 4/90/61-LRII, dated the 9th June, 1961, the proceedings in relation to the above dispute were transferred from the Dhanbad Tribunal for disposal to this Tribunal.

The parties have filed their statements. It appears that one Sri Jogeshwar, who was working as timber mistry, was dismissed by the employer on the ground that he had committed a theft of two cap lamps. He denied the allegation. An enquiry was held by the Management who after examining the witnesses held the charge proved and dismissed the workman. It was contended by the workmen that the dismissal of the above workman was not justified. Hence this reference.

When the matter came up for hearing before the Tribunal, the parties produced a memorandum of agreement arrived at between them. Under the agreement, the workmen do not press for the reinstatement of the above workman but the Management have agreed to pay Rs. 300 as costs of this reference.

I have gone through the record of the case and I find that the Management had held an enquiry after framing a charge-sheet against the workman and after giving him an opportunity of defending himself. Witnesses were examined and cross examined by the workman and after considering the evidence, the Management held the above workman guilty of the charge framed against him and dismissed him. Under the circumstances, I think that the Union is right in not pressing for his reinstatement. A sum of Rs. 300 is being paid as costs of the Reference by the Management and under the circumstances, I think the settlement is reasonable.

I, therefore, record the settlement and pass an award in terms thereof.

Presiding Officer.
